GENERAL

The accompanying proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company", "we", "us", or "our") for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders referred to in the foregoing notice and at any adjournment thereof. It is expected that this Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy(s) will be mailed on or about February 7, 2006 to each shareholder entitled to vote. The Company's Annual Report for the year ended October 31, 2005 also accompanies this Proxy Statement.

If no specifications are made, the persons named in the accompanying proxy card(s) will vote the shares represented by such proxies for the Board of Directors' slate of directors, for the ratification of Ernst & Young LLP, the selected independent registered public accounting firm, and as recommended by the Board of Directors, unless contrary instructions are given. Any person may revoke a previously designated proxy at any time before it is exercised by delivering written notice of revocation to Peter S. Reinhart, the Secretary of the Company, or by voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Please note that attendance at the Annual Meeting will not by itself revoke a proxy.

All share and per share amounts in this Proxy Statement have been retroactively adjusted to reflect the Company's 2-for-1 stock split in the form of a 100% stock dividend of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock which occurred in March 2004.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's executive officers, directors, persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities and certain entities associated with the foregoing ("Reporting Persons") to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"). These Reporting Persons are required by SEC rules to furnish the Company with copies of all Forms 3, 4 and 5, and amendments thereto, that they file with the SEC and the NYSE.

Based solely on the Company's review of the copies of such forms and amendments thereto it has received, the Company believes that with respect to the fiscal year ended October 31, 2005, all the Reporting Persons complied with all applicable filing requirements, except as follows: (1) John J. Robbins reported on his Form 5 with respect to fiscal year 2005 two gifts of shares made by his spouse that should have been reported on a Form 5 for the prior fiscal year and (2) Ara K. Hovnanian reported on his Form 5 with respect to fiscal year 2005 a sale of shares held by a trust for the benefit of the family of one of his sisters, which sale was made at the direction of one of the other trustees but should have been reported earlier.

(1) ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's restated By-laws provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of up to eleven Directors who shall be elected annually by the shareholders. The Company's amended Certificate of Incorporation requires that at any time when any shares of Class B Common Stock are outstanding, one-third of the Directors shall be independent, as defined therein.

Under the rules of the NYSE, listed companies, like us, who have a controlling shareholder are not required to have a majority of independent directors, as defined by NYSE rules. Because Mr. K. Hovnanian and members of his immediate family hold more than 50% of the voting power of the Company, the Company is a controlled company within the meaning of the rules of the NYSE.

The Board of Directors has determined that a Board of Directors consisting of the nine nominees listed below is the best composition in order to satisfy both the independence requirements of the Company's amended Certificate of Incorporation as well as the NYSE rules.

Mr. Arthur Greenbaum and Mr. Desmond McDonald have decided not to stand for re-election as Directors of the Company. Mr. Greenbaum has served as a Director since 1992 and Mr. McDonald has served as a Director since 1982 and as Chairman of the Company's Audit Committee since its inception in 1992 through July 2005. The Company is nominating Mr. Robert B. Coutts and Mr. Joseph A. Marengi to serve on the Company's Board of Directors. Biographies for Mr. Coutts and Mr. Marengi are provided below under "Board of Directors — Nominees' Biographies".

The following nominees are proposed as Directors of the Company to hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified. In the event that any of the nominees for Director should become unavailable to serve as a Director, it is intended that the shares represented by proxies will be voted for such substitute nominees as may be nominated by the Board of Directors, unless the number of Directors constituting a full Board of Directors is reduced. The Company has no reason to believe, however, that any of the nominees is, or will be, unavailable to serve as a Director. Proxies cannot be voted for a greater number of persons than the number of nominees named below.

In conjunction with the self-evaluation, the Board of Directors reviews the qualifications and effectiveness of the existing Board of Directors and allows for each board member to make comments or recommendations regarding the qualifications and effectiveness of the existing Board of Directors or additional qualifications that may be required when selecting new board members. Among other factors, the Board of Directors generally considers the size of the Board of Directors best suited to fulfill its responsibilities, the Board of Directors' overall membership composition to ensure the Board of Directors has the requisite expertise and consists of persons with sufficiently diverse backgrounds, the independence of outside directors and other possible conflicts of interest of existing and potential members of the Board of Directors.

The Company retained The Directorship Search Group (the "DSG"), an independent board and executive search firm, to assist it in identifying candidates to serve as Directors of the Company, for which services the Company paid a fee. The DSG conducted extensive research and independent interviews of potential candidates in order to assess their qualifications in accordance with the Company's criteria. The DSG then referred certain of such candidates to the Company for further review.

The Company does not have a Nominating Committee. Under the rules of the NYSE, listed companies, like us, who have a controlling shareholder are not required to have a nominating committee. Because the Company does not have a Nominating Committee, the Company does not have a specific policy regarding shareholder nominations of potential directors to the Board of Directors, other than through the process described under "Shareholder Proposals for the 2007 Annual Meeting" below. Possible nominees to the Board of Directors may be suggested by any Director and given to the Chairman of the Board. The Company's restated By-laws provide that Directors need not be shareholders. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, who is also the controlling shareholder, each year recommends a slate of directors to be nominated for election at the annual shareholders' meeting. The Board of Directors approves the slate of nominees. Vacancies on the Board of Directors, other than those resulting from removal by shareholders, may be filled by action of the Board of Directors after recommendation by the Chairman of the Board.

As of the 120th calendar day prior to February 7, 2006, the Board of Directors had not received any recommendation for the nomination of a candidate to the Board of Directors by any shareholder or group of shareholders that at such time held more than 5% of the Company's voting stock for at least one year.

On December 12, 2005, the Board of Directors approved the establishment of a Corporate Governance Committee, although the Company is not required to have such committee since it meets the NYSE definition of a controlled company. Members of the Committee are Mr. Kangas and Mr. Weinroth. The Corporate Governance Committee is primarily responsible for reviewing the Company's existing Corporate Governance Guidelines and further developing such guidelines and other policies and procedures which enhance the Company's commitment to corporate governance. The Committee is governed by its Charter which contains the Committee's additional responsibilities.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Each non-employee Director is paid an annual retainer of $40,000, 50% in cash and 50% in shares of Class A Common Stock (approximately 387 shares of Class A Common Stock each in fiscal year 2005). In addition, non-employee Directors receive an additional retainer of $20,000 for each Board Committee on which they serve, paid 50% in cash and 50% in shares of Class A Common Stock (approximately 194 shares of Class A Common Stock for each Board Committee on which they served in fiscal year 2005).

In May 2005, the Compensation Committee decided to change the date of the annual stock grant to non-employee Directors from January of each year to May of each year so that it would coincide with the date of grants made to the Company's key employees. As a result, each non-employee Director also received in May 2005, options to purchase an additional 2,500 shares of Class A Common Stock and options to purchase an additional 1,000 shares of Class A Common Stock for each Board committee on which such non-employee Director served during fiscal 2005, which represented a portion of the entire grant for fiscal 2005 service for service during the first six months of the fiscal year. In accordance with the above, in fiscal 2005, Mr. McDonald, Mr. Robbins, Mr. Greenbaum, Mr. Kangas, and Mr. Weinroth, each received stock option grants to purchase, respectively, an aggregate of 10,500, 10,500, 7,500, 13,500, and 13,500 shares of Class A Common Stock.

In addition, all members of the Company's Board of Directors were reimbursed for expenses related to their attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors and committee meetings and other related out-of-pocket business expenses.

Employment Contracts and Arrangements

In February 2006, the Company entered into an agreement with Ara K. Hovnanian, President and Chief Executive Officer, that provides that in the event of his disability or death during his employment with the Company he (or his designated beneficiary, estate or legal representative) will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment of $10 million dollars. This agreement replaces a pre-existing agreement in which A. Hovnanian (or his legal representative or estate) would have received, in the event of his disability or death during his employment with the Company, payments equal to the average of the sum of his annual base salary and the annual bonus amount earned by him in respect of the three full preceding calendar years, which would have been paid in equal monthly installments through the third anniversary of his disability or death.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee is charged with the responsibility of reviewing salaries, bonuses, and other forms of compensation to be paid to the Company's executive officers, key management employees, and non-employee Directors.

In December 2005, the Board of Directors approved the Compensation Committee's recommendation that compensation for non-employee Directors for fiscal year 2006 remain the same as was in effect for 2005. For a description of such compensation, please see "Director Compensation" above.

The Board also approved the Compensation Committee's recommendation that the bonus formula for both the President and CEO and Chairman of the Board remain the same as it was in effect for fiscal 2005.

The Compensation Committee also reviewed its Charter, overall equity-based compensation plans involving executive officers and key employees, and awards issued under such plans for executive officers, and performed its annual self-evaluation.

For additional information related to compensation of key employees of the Company, see below.

Compensation Incentives for the Company's Executives

The amount and nature of the compensation received by the Company's executives during the year ended October 31, 2005 was determined in accordance with the compensation program and policies described below. The compensation program and policies for the Company's executives have not changed since the Company's last Annual Meeting. The executive compensation program is designed to attract, retain and reward highly qualified executives while maintaining a strong and direct link between executive pay, the Company's financial performance and total shareholder return. The executive compensation program contains three major components: base salaries, annual bonuses and stock options. In establishing the three major components for each executive, the Compensation Committee reviews, as part of its evaluation, the compensation received by other executives in the homebuilding industry.

Base Salary

The Compensation Committee believes that, due to the Company's success in its principal markets, other companies seeking proven executives may view members of the Company's highly experienced executive team as potential hires. The base salaries paid to the Company's executive officers and key management employees during the year ended October 31, 2005 generally were believed to be necessary to retain their services. Base salaries, including that of Mr. K. Hovnanian, the Company's Chairman of the Board, and Mr. Ara Hovnanian, the President and Chief Executive Officer, are reviewed annually and are adjusted based on the performance of the executive, any increase or change in responsibilities assumed by the executive, average salary increases or decreases in the industry and the going rate for similar positions at comparable companies. Each executive officer's base salary, including the base salary of each of Mr. K. Hovnanian and Mr. A. Hovnanian, was reviewed by the Compensation Committee in accordance with the criteria described above.

Annual Bonus and Stock Option Programs

The Company maintains annual bonus and stock option programs under which executive officers and other key management employees have the opportunity to earn cash bonuses and other awards. The programs consist of the amended and restated Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc. Senior Executive Short-Term Incentive Plan ("Short-Term Incentive Plan") and the amended and restated 1999 Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan ("1999 Plan") and are intended to motivate and reward executives for the achievement of individual performance objectives and for the attainment by the Company of strategic and financial performance goals, including levels of return on equity. In addition, under the 1999 Plan, the ultimate value received by option holders is directly tied to increases in the Company's stock price, therefore, stock options serve to link closely the interests of management and shareholders and to motivate executives to make decisions that will serve to increase the long-term total return to shareholders. Additionally, grants under the 1999 Plan include vesting and termination provisions which the Compensation Committee believes will encourage option holders to remain employees of the Company.

Under the Short-Term Incentive Plan, the President and Chief Executive Officer's (Mr. A. Hovnanian) bonus calculation is derived as a percentage of pre-tax income based on the Company's after-tax Return On Average Quarterly Common Equity ("ROAQE"). Other senior executives, including Mr. K. Hovnanian, Chairman of the Board, receive a fixed amount bonus which is based on the Company's ROAQE. All other executive officers and key management employees participate in the 1999 Plan, which is based on ROAQE and they receive either a fixed amount or a percentage of their base salary. As the Company's ROAQE reaches higher targeted levels, the fixed amount or bonus percentage of salary increases.

Generally, annual bonuses are payable 70% in cash and 30% in the form of a deferred share award, subject to an executive or key management employee's continued employment with the Company. The number of shares of the Company's common stock paid under a deferred share award is determined by dividing the dollar amount of the deferred share award by the lesser of (i) the closing price of the common stock on the last day of the fiscal year during which the service giving rise to the deferred share award was performed, or (ii) the average of the closing prices of a share of common stock on the last day of the 5 fiscal quarters ending on the last day of the fiscal year during which the service giving rise to the deferred share award was performed, plus an additional 20% of such shares.

Deferred share award recipients who have attained age 58 or who have completed at least 20 years of service for the Company will be fully vested in all shares relating to a deferred share award on the later of (i) the January 15th following the fiscal year during which the service giving rise to the deferred share award is performed, or (ii) the date on which age 58 is attained or 20 years of service is performed. Other deferred share award recipients vest in twenty-five percent of their deferred share awards over a period of four years beginning on the second November 1st following the fiscal year during which the service giving rise to the deferred share award was performed, subject to rounding.

The Company's annual bonus and stock option programs are intended to allow the Company to make awards to executive officers and other key management employees that are deductible under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), which otherwise sets limits on the tax deductibility of compensation paid to a company's most highly compensated executive officers. The Compensation Committee will continue to seek ways to limit the impact of Section 162(m) of the Code. However, the Compensation Committee believes that the tax deduction limitation should not compromise the Company's ability to establish and implement incentive programs that support the compensation objectives discussed above. Accordingly, achieving these objectives and maintaining required flexibility in this regard may result in compensation that is not deductible for federal income tax purposes.

Both the Short-Term Incentive Plan and the 1999 Plan are administered by the Compensation Committee.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

Membership, Independence & Qualifications

Messrs. Kangas, as Chairman, McDonald, Robbins and Weinroth are the members of the Audit Committee. In the judgment of the Company's Board of Directors, each member of the Audit Committee is independent as required by both the rules of the NYSE and SEC regulations, and an "audit committee financial expert" in accordance with SEC regulations.

Responsibilities of the Audit Committee & Charter

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors and is governed by its Charter which was adopted in March 2000 and amended in December 2002, October 2003 and January 2004. The Audit Committee Charter is available on the Company's public website, www.khov.com, under "Investor Relations/Governance".

Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements included in the Annual Report with management. This review included a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent registered public accounting firm, which is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles:

- the overall scope and plans for such accounting firm's respective audits of the Company,
- such accounting firm's judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles,
- such accounting firm's independence from management and the Company, including matters in the written disclosures and the letter from the independent registered public accounting firm required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and received by the Company,
- and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards and under Statements on Auditing Standards No. 61.

The Audit Committee, as part of its Charter, reviews quarterly with management the Company's financial statements prior to their being filed with the SEC. In addition, the Audit Committee, in reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended October 31, 2005, which was filed with the SEC on January 11, 2006.

Policies & Procedures Established By Audit Committee

In accordance with SEC regulations, the Audit Committee has established procedures for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the independent registered public accounting firm engaged to prepare or issue an audit report or other audit, review, or attest services. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm will report directly to the Audit Committee, and the Audit Committee is responsible for the resolution of disagreements between such firm and management regarding financial reporting.

In fiscal year 2003, the Audit Committee established whistle blowing procedures as required by Section 301 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and Section 303A.07(c)(iii) of the NYSE Corporate Governance Rules. These procedures are discussed in the Company's Code of Ethics (Section IV.G.) which is available on the Company's public website at www.khov.com under "Investor Relations/Governance".

Audit and Non-Audit Services Pre-Approval Policy

The Audit Committee has also established procedures for the pre-approval of audit and non-audit services provided by an independent registered public accounting firm. The Company's "Audit and Non-Audit Services Pre-Approval Policy" ("Pre-Approval Policy") was most recently reviewed and approved by the Audit Committee at its meeting held on October 12, 2005.

As set forth in the Pre-Approval Policy, audit services require specific approval by the Audit Committee, except for certain services that have received general pre-approval by the Audit Committee.

In accordance with the Pre-Approval Policy, the Audit Committee annually reviews and pre-approves the services that may be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm without obtaining specific pre-approval from the Audit Committee. Prior to establishing the list of pre-approved services, the Audit Committee determines if the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is an effective provider of services. The Audit Committee may revise the list of general pre-approved services from time to time, based on subsequent determinations. For fiscal year 2006, there are four categories of services that have received general pre-approval by the Audit Committee: Audit, Audit-Related, Tax and All Other Services and the pre-approved dollar amount for such services may not exceed $100,000 per engagement.

The Audit Committee may delegate to one or more of its members the authority to approve in advance all significant audit or permitted non-audit services to be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm so long as decisions are presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

GENERAL

The expense of this solicitation is to be borne by the Company. The Company may also reimburse persons holding shares in their names or in the names of their nominees for their expenses in sending proxies and proxy materials to their principals.

Unless otherwise directed, the persons named in the accompanying proxy card(s) intend to vote all shares represented by proxies received by them in favor of the election of the nominees to the Board of Directors of the Company named herein and in favor of the ratification of the selected independent registered public accounting firm. All proxies will be voted as specified.

Each share of Class A Common Stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote and each share of Class B Common Stock entitles the holder thereof to ten votes. Votes of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will be counted together without regard to class for proposals that require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of all outstanding common stock, voting together. All votes will be certified by the Inspectors of Election, who are employees of the Company.

Abstentions will have the effect of votes against a proposal and broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company's amended Certificate of Incorporation provides that each share of Class B Common Stock held, to the extent of the Company's knowledge, in nominee name by a stockbroker, bank or otherwise will be entitled to only one vote per share unless the Company is satisfied that such shares have been held continuously, since the date of issuance, for the benefit or account of the same named beneficial owner of such shares (as defined in the amended Certificate of Incorporation) or any Permitted Transferee (as defined in the amended Certificate of Incorporation). Beneficial owners of shares of Class B Common Stock held in nominee name wishing to cast ten votes for each share of such stock must properly complete their proxy card, which is specially designed for beneficial owners of Class B Common Stock. The Company has also supplied nominee holders of Class B Common Stock with instructions and specially designed proxy cards to accommodate the voting of the Class B Common Stock. In accordance with the Company's amended Certificate of Incorporation, shares of Class B Common Stock held in nominee name will be entitled to ten votes per share only if the beneficial owner proxy card and the nominee proxy card relating to such shares is properly completed, mailed, and received by ADP, the Company's proxy service facilitator, not less than 3 nor more than 20 business days prior to March 8, 2006. Proxy cards should be mailed to Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc., c/o ADP, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, N.Y., 11717.
