GENERAL

The accompanying proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company", "we", "us", or "our") for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders referred to in the foregoing notice and at any adjournment thereof. It is expected that this Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy will be mailed on or about February 7, 2005 to each shareholder entitled to vote. A proxy card(s) and the Company's Annual Report for the year ended October 31, 2004 accompany this Proxy Statement.

Shares represented by properly executed proxies, if such proxies are received in time and not revoked, will be voted in accordance with the specifications thereon. If no specifications are made, the persons named in the accompanying proxy will vote the shares represented by such proxy for the Board of Directors' slate of directors, for the ratification of Ernst & Young LLP, the selected independent registered public accounting firm, and as recommended by the Board of Directors, unless contrary instructions are given. Any person may revoke a previously designated proxy at any time before it is exercised by delivering written notice of revocation to Peter S. Reinhart, the Secretary of the Company, or by voting in person at the meeting. Please note that attendance at the meeting will not by itself revoke a proxy.

All share and per share amounts in this Proxy Statement have been retroactively adjusted to reflect the Company's 2-for-1 stock split in the form of a 100% stock dividend of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock which occurred in March 2004.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's executive officers, directors, persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities and certain entities associated with the foregoing ("Reporting Persons") to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"). These Reporting Persons are required by SEC rules to furnish the Company with copies of all Forms 3, 4 and 5, and amendments thereto, that they file with the SEC and the NYSE.

Based solely on the Company's review of the copies of such forms and amendments thereto it has received, the Company believes that with respect to the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004, all the Reporting Persons complied with all applicable filing requirements, except as follows: (1) each of Kevork S. Hovnanian, his spouse Sirwart Hovnanian, and Ara K. Hovnanian reported on Form 4 transfers of shares by Kevork Hovnanian and Ara Hovnanian to annuity trusts in which they were the principal beneficiary, but such reports were not filed in a timely manner and (2) Peter S. Reinhart amended a previously filed Form 4 to report late that the shares timely reported as sold in the original filing were received upon the exercise of an employee stock option.

(1) ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's restated By-laws provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of up to eleven directors who shall be elected annually by the shareholders. The Company's amended Certificate of Incorporation requires that at any time when any shares of Class B Common Stock are outstanding, one-third of the directors shall be independent, as defined therein.

Under the rules of the NYSE, listed companies, like us, who have a controlling shareholder are not required to have a majority of independent directors, as defined by NYSE rules. Because Mr. K. Hovnanian and members of his immediate family hold more than 50% of the voting power of the Company, the Company is a controlled company within the meaning of the rules of the NYSE.

The Board of Directors has determined that a Board of Directors consisting of the nine nominees listed below is the best composition in order to satisfy both the independence requirements of the Company's amended Certificate of Incorporation as well as the NYSE rules.

The following nominees are proposed as directors of the Company to hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified. In the event that any of the nominees for directors should become unavailable, it is intended that the shares represented by proxies will be voted for such substitute nominees as may be nominated by the Board of Directors, unless the number of directors constituting a full Board of Directors is reduced. The Company has no reason to believe, however, that any of the nominees is, or will be, unavailable to serve as a director. Proxies cannot be voted for a greater number of persons than the number of nominees named below.

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

During the year ended October 31, 2004, the Board of Directors held four regularly scheduled meetings and one telephonic meeting. In addition, directors considered Company matters and had frequent communications with the Chairman of the Board of Directors and others apart from the formal meetings. Directors are expected to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, but the Company does not have a formal policy with respect to attendance. Eight members of the Board of Directors attended the Annual Meeting of Shareholders held on March 5, 2004.

Audit Committee

During the year ended October 31, 2004, the members of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors were Messrs. Kangas, McDonald, Robbins and Weinroth. The Audit Committee is chaired by Mr. McDonald and is responsible for reviewing and approving the scope of the annual audit undertaken by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and meeting with them to review the results of their work as well as their recommendations. The Audit Committee appoints the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and also approves and reviews their fees.

The Vice President of Internal Audit for the Company reports directly to the Audit Committee on, among other things, the Company's compliance with certain Company procedures which are designed to enhance management's understanding of operating issues and the results of the Audit Department's approximately twenty-five audits annually of the various aspects of the Company's business. The Audit Committee authorizes staffing and compensation of the internal audit department. The Company's Chief Accounting Officer reports directly to the Audit Committee on significant accounting issues. During the year ended October 31, 2004, the Audit Committee met on four occasions and had eight telephonic meetings. For additional information related to the Audit Committee, see "Report of the Audit Committee" below.

Compensation Committee

During the year ended October 31, 2004, the members of the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors were Messrs. Weinroth and Kangas. The Compensation Committee is chaired by Mr. Weinroth and is active in reviewing salaries, bonuses, and other forms of compensation for the Company's executive officers, key management employees, and non-employee directors, and in establishing salaries and in other compensation and personnel areas as the Board of Directors from time to time may request. For a discussion of the criteria used and factors considered by the Compensation Committee in reviewing and establishing executive compensation, see "Report of the Compensation Committee" below. During the year ended October 31, 2004, the Compensation Committee met on one occasion and had four telephonic meetings.

Nominating Committee

The Company does not have a Nominating Committee. Under the rules of the NYSE, listed companies, like us, who have a controlling shareholder are not required to have a nominating committee. Because the Company does not have a Nominating Committee, the Company does not have a specific policy regarding shareholder nominations of potential directors to the Board of Directors, other than through the process described under "Shareholder Proposals for the 2006 Annual Meeting" below. Possible nominees to the Board of Directors may be suggested by any director and given to the Chairman of the Board. The Company's restated By-laws provide that directors need not be shareholders. The Chairman of the Board of Directors, who is also the controlling shareholder, each year recommends a slate of directors to be nominated for election at the annual shareholders' meeting. The Board of Directors approves the slate of nominees. Vacancies on the Board of Directors, other than those resulting from removal by shareholders, may be filled by action of the Board of Directors after recommendation by the Chairman of the Board.

As of the 120th calendar day prior to February 9, 2005, the Board of Directors had not received any recommendation for the nomination of a candidate to the Board of Directors by any shareholder or group of shareholders that at such time held more than 5% of the Company's voting stock for at least one year.

The Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines ("Guidelines") require that the Board of Directors conduct a self-evaluation at least annually, and as circumstances otherwise dictate. In conjunction with the self-evaluation, the Board of Directors reviews the qualifications and effectiveness of the existing Board of Directors and allows for each board member to make comments or recommendations regarding the qualifications and effectiveness of the existing Board of Directors or additional qualifications that may be required when selecting new board members. Among other factors, the Board of Directors generally considers the size of the Board of Directors best suited to fulfill its responsibilities, the Board of Directors' overall membership composition to ensure the Board of Directors has the requisite expertise and consists of persons with sufficiently diverse backgrounds, the independence of outside directors and other possible conflicts of interest of existing and potential members of the Board of Directors. The Company does not pay fees to any third party to identify or evaluate or assist in the identification or evaluation of potential director nominees.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

In fiscal year 2004, each non-employee director was paid an annual retainer of $40,000, 50% in cash and 50% in shares of Class A Common Stock (approximately 472 shares of Class A Common Stock). In addition, the non-employee directors received a fee of $3,000 for each board meeting held in person and $2,000 for each telephonic board meeting. Members of the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee received $5,000 for each meeting held in person and $2,500 for each telephonic meeting. In accordance with the above, for fiscal year 2004, Mr. McDonald received $94,000, Mr. Greenbaum received $54,000, Mr. Robbins received $94,000, Mr. Weinroth received $109,000, and Mr. Kangas received $109,000. From time to time, non-employee directors were also granted stock options, and in January of 2004, non-employee directors received an award of 15,000 options to purchase Class A Common Stock. In addition, all directors were reimbursed for expenses related to their attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors and committee meetings.

For information on non-employee director compensation for fiscal year 2005, see “Non-Employee Director Compensation Amendments” below.

VOTE REQUIRED

The election of the nominees to the Company’s Board of Directors for the ensuing year, to serve until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company, and until their respective successors may be elected and qualified, requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of all outstanding common stock, voting together.

Mr. K. Hovnanian and certain members of his family have informed the Company that they intend to vote in favor of the nominees named in this proposal. Because of the voting power of Mr. K. Hovnanian and such members of his family, this proposal is assured passage.

Our Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR the election of the nominees named in this proposal to the Company’s Board of Directors.

(2) RATIFICATION OF THE SELECTION OF AN INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

The selection of an independent registered public accounting firm to examine financial statements of the Company made available or transmitted to shareholders and filed with the SEC for the year ended October 31, 2005 is submitted to this Annual Meeting of Shareholders for ratification. Ernst & Young LLP has been selected by the Audit Committee of the Company to examine such financial statements.

The Company has been advised that a representative of Ernst & Young LLP will attend this Annual Meeting of Shareholders to respond to appropriate questions and will be afforded the opportunity to make a statement if the representative so desires.

VOTE REQUIRED

Ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm to examine financial statements of the Company for the year ended October 31, 2005, requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of all outstanding common stock, voting together.

Mr. K. Hovnanian and certain members of his family have informed the Company that they intend to vote in favor of this proposal. Because of the voting power of Mr. K. Hovnanian and such members of his family, this proposal is assured passage.

Our Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote FOR ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee is charged with the responsibility of determining the cash and other incentive compensation, if any, to be paid to the Company's executive officers, key management employees, and non-employee directors.

Non-Employee Director Compensation Amendments

In December 2004, the Compensation Committee engaged an outside compensation consultant to provide information with regard to compensation incentives of non-employee directors of comparable companies in the homebuilding industry. The report was reviewed with the Chairman of the Board and the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Thereafter, the Compensation Committee presented the Board of Directors with its recommendation for compensation of non-employee directors, which closely followed the outside consultant's recommendations.

On January 12, 2005, the Board of Directors unanimously approved the recommendation of the Compensation Committee to provide an additional retainer of $20,000 to non-employee directors for each Board committee on which they serve (50% in cash and 50% in shares of Class A Common Stock). Previously, non-employee directors did not receive an annual retainer specifically for service on a committee. In addition, the Board of Directors approved an annual grant of 5,000 options to purchase shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock to all non-employee directors and an additional annual grant of 2,000 options to purchase shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock to non-employee directors for each Board committee on which they serve. These stock options will be granted pursuant to the amended and restated 1999 Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan and they will vest in three equal annual installments beginning one year after the date of grant and expire ten years from the date of the grant. Previously, stock options were granted sporadically and not specifically for service on a Board committee.

Effective January 12, 2005, compensation for the Company's non-employee directors consists of the following:

Annual Retainer

Each non-employee director's annual retainer consists of $40,000 and an additional $20,000 for each Board committee on which such non-employee director serves (50% in cash and 50% in shares of Class A Common Stock for the entire amount).

Annual Stock Option Grant

Each non-employee director's annual stock option grant consists of options to purchase 5,000 shares of Class A Common Stock and options to purchase an additional 2,000 shares for each Board committee on which such non-employee director serves.

Meeting Fees

In fiscal year 2005, meeting fees for non-employee directors will remain the same as in fiscal year 2004: $3,000 will be paid to each non-employee director for each Board meeting held in person, $2,000 for each telephonic Board meeting, $5,000 for each committee meeting held in person and $2,500 for each telephonic committee meeting. In addition, all directors are reimbursed for expenses related to their attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors and committee meetings.

Compensation Incentives for the Company's Executives

The amount and nature of the compensation received by the Company's executives during the year ended October 31, 2004 was determined in accordance with the compensation program and policies described below. The compensation program and policies for the Company's executives have not changed since the Company's last Annual Meeting. The executive compensation program is designed to attract, retain and reward highly qualified executives while maintaining a strong and direct link between executive pay, the Company's financial performance and total shareholder return. The executive compensation program contains three major components: base salaries, annual bonuses and stock options. In establishing the three major components for each executive, the Compensation Committee reviews, as part of its criteria, the compensation received by other executives in the homebuilding industry.

Base Salary

The Compensation Committee believes that, due to the Company's success in its principal markets, other companies seeking proven executives may view members of the Company's highly experienced executive team as potential hires. The base salaries paid to the Company's executive officers and key management employees during the year ended October 31, 2004 generally were believed to be necessary to retain their services. Base salaries, including that of Mr. K. Hovnanian, the Company's Chairman of the Board, and Mr. Ara Hovnanian, the President and Chief Executive Officer, are reviewed annually and are adjusted based on the performance of the executive, any increase or change in responsibilities assumed by the executive, average salary increases or decreases in the industry and the going rate for similar positions at comparable companies. Base salaries for the Company's other executive officers for the year ended October 31, 2004 were set by Mr. A. Hovnanian. Each executive officer's base salary, including the base salary of each of Mr. K. Hovnanian and Mr. A. Hovnanian, was reviewed by the Compensation Committee in accordance with the criteria described above.

Annual Bonus Program

The Company maintains an annual bonus program under which executive officers and other key management employees have the opportunity to earn bonuses. The annual bonus program consists of the amended and restated Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc. Senior Executive Short-Term Incentive Plan ("Short-Term Incentive Plan") and the amended and restated 1999 Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan ("1999 Plan") and is intended to motivate and reward executives for the achievement of individual performance objectives and for the attainment by the Company of strategic and financial performance goals, including levels of return on equity. In addition, under the 1999 Plan, the ultimate value received by option holders is directly tied to increases in the Company's stock price, therefore, stock options serve to link closely the interests of management and shareholders and to motivate executives to make decisions that will serve to increase the long-term total return to shareholders. Additionally, grants under the 1999 Plan include vesting and termination provisions which the Compensation Committee believes will encourage option holders to remain employees of the Company.

Under the Short-Term Incentive Plan, senior executives, including Mr. K. Hovnanian, Chairman of the Board, and Mr. A. Hovnanian, President and Chief Executive Officer, receive a fixed amount bonus based on the Company's Return on Equity ("ROE"). All other executive officers participate in the 1999 Plan, which is based on ROE or on a Division's Return on Investment ("ROI") and they receive either a fixed amount or a percentage of their base salary. As the Company's ROE or a Division's ROI reaches higher targeted levels, the fixed amount or bonus percentage of salary increases. Generally, annual bonuses are payable 70% in cash and 30% in the form of a deferred share award. Each deferred share award provides that, on each of the first four anniversaries of the date the cash portion of the annual bonus becomes payable (generally at the end of the year in respect of which the bonus is being determined), and subject to an executive's continued employment with the Company, the executive becomes vested in 25% of a specified number of shares of the Company's common stock. This number of shares of common stock is equal to (i) the quotient of (x) the dollar amount of the 30% of the annual bonus amount, divided by (y) the closing price of the Company's common stock on the date the cash portion of the annual bonus is payable, plus (ii) an additional 20% of the number of shares determined as set forth in clause (x). Any executive who receives a deferred share award who has completed or completes 20 years of service with the Company, or is or achieves age 58, will be immediately vested in his or her deferred share award.

The Company's annual bonus program is intended to allow the Company to make awards to executive officers and other key management employees that are deductible under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The Compensation Committee will continue to seek ways to limit the impact of Section 162(m) of the Code. However, the Compensation Committee believes that the tax deduction limitation should not compromise the Company's ability to establish and implement incentive programs that support the compensation objectives discussed above. Accordingly, achieving these objectives and maintaining required flexibility in this regard may result in compensation that is not deductible for federal income tax purposes.

Both the Short-Term Incentive Plan and the 1999 Plan are administered by the Compensation Committee.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

During the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004, the members of the Compensation Committee were Messrs. Weinroth and Kangas. Each of Messrs. Weinroth and Kangas are non-employee directors and were never officers or employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

See "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" below for more information concerning Mr. Greenbaum's business relationship with the Company.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

Membership, Independence, & Qualifications

Messrs. McDonald, as Chairman, Kangas, Robbins and Weinroth are the members of the Audit Committee. In the judgment of the Company's Board of Directors, each member of the Audit Committee is independent as required by both the rules of the NYSE and SEC regulations, and a "financial expert" in accordance with SEC regulations. The most recent review by the Board of Directors of Audit Committee member qualifications occurred on December 3, 2004 at a regularly scheduled Board Meeting.

Responsibilities of the Audit Committee & Charter

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors and is governed by its Charter which was adopted in March 2000 and amended in December 2002, October 2003 and January 2004. The Audit Committee Charter is available on the Company's public website, www.khov.com, under "Investor Relations/Governance".

Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements included in the Annual Report with management. This review included a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent registered public accounting firm, which is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles:

- the overall scope and plans for such accounting firm's respective audits of the Company,
- such accounting firm's judgements as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles,
- such accounting firm's independence from management and the Company, including matters in the written disclosures and the letter from the independent registered public accounting firm required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and received by the Company,
- and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards and under Statements on Auditing Standards No. 61.

The Audit Committee, as part of its Charter, reviews quarterly with management the Company's financial statements prior to their being filed with the SEC. In addition, the Audit Committee, in reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended October 31, 2004, which was filed with the SEC on January 13, 2005.

Policies & Procedures Established By Audit Committee

In accordance with SEC regulations, the Audit Committee has established procedures for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the independent registered public accounting firm engaged to prepare or issue an audit report or other audit, review, or attest services. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm will report directly to the Audit Committee, and the Audit Committee is responsible for the resolution of disagreements between such firm and management regarding financial reporting.

In fiscal year 2003, the Audit Committee established whistle blowing procedures as required by Section 301 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and NYSE Rule 303(A)(7)(c)(iii). These procedures are discussed in the Company's Code of Ethics (Section IV.G.) which is available on the Company's public website at www.khov.com under "Investor Relations/Governance".

Audit and Non-Audit Services Pre-Approval Policy

The Audit Committee has also established procedures for the pre-approval of audit and non-audit services provided by an independent registered public accounting firm. The Company's "Audit and Non-Audit Services Pre-Approval Policy" ("Pre-Approval Policy") was most recently reviewed and approved by the Audit Committee at its meeting held on October 4, 2004.

As set forth in the Pre-Approval Policy, audit services require specific approval by the Audit Committee, except for certain services that have received general pre-approval by the Audit Committee.

In accordance with the Pre-Approval Policy, the Audit Committee annually reviews and pre-approves the services that may be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm without obtaining specific pre-approval from the Audit Committee. Prior to establishing the list of pre-approved services, the Audit Committee determines if the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is an effective provider of services. The Audit Committee may revise the list of general pre-approved services from time to time, based on subsequent determinations. For fiscal year 2005, there are four categories of services that have received general pre-approval by the Audit Committee: Audit, Audit-Related, Tax and All Other Services and the pre-approved dollar amount for such services may not exceed $100,000 per engagement.

The Audit Committee may delegate to one or more of its members the authority to approve in advance all significant audit or permitted non-audit services to be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm so long as decisions are presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Mr. K. Hovnianian, the Chairman of Company's Board of Directors, is the father of Mr. A. Hovnianian, the Chief Executive Officer and a member of the Board of Directors.

Prior to the enactment of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "Act"), our Board of Directors adopted a general policy providing that it would not make loans to our officers or directors or their relatives at an interest rate less than the interest rate at the date of the loan on six month U.S. Treasury Bills, that the aggregate of such loans would not exceed $3 million at any one time, and that such loans would be made only with the approval of the members of our Board of Directors who had no interest in the transaction. At October 31, 2004, there was one loan amounting to $140,000 to an executive officer, who is not a member of the Board of Directors. This loan was extended for relocation purposes, and is forgivable after five years. The loan was extended prior to the enactment of the Act, and has not been materially modified.

The Company has provided property management services to various limited partnerships, including one partnership in which our Chief Executive Officer was a general partner and in which members of his family and certain officers and directors were limited partners. We no longer provide such services. During fiscal year 2004, we received $100,000 in fees for such management services.

During the year ended October 31, 2003, we entered into an agreement to purchase land in California for approximately $33.4 million from an entity that is owned by a relative of our Chairman of the Board and our Chief Executive Officer. As of October 31, 2004, we have an option deposit of $3.0 million related to this land acquisition agreement. In connection with this agreement, we also have consolidated $30.4 million in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 46, "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities", which is shown under "Consolidated Inventory Not Owned" on our Consolidated Balance Sheet for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004. Neither the Company, the Chairman of the Board nor the Chief Executive Officer has a financial interest in the relative's company from which the land was optioned.

During the year ended October 31, 2001, we entered into an agreement to purchase land from an entity that is owned by a relative of our Chairman of the Board and our Chief Executive Officer, totaling $26.9 million. As of October 31, 2004, land aggregating $22.1 million had been purchased. Neither the Company, the Chairman of the Board nor the Chief Executive Officer has a financial interest in the relative's company from which the land was purchased.

Mr. Greenbaum, a member of our Board of Directors, is a partner in Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP, a legal firm retained by the Company during the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004, which provided services to the Company during the fiscal year ended October 31, 2004.

GENERAL

The expense of this solicitation is to be borne by the Company. The Company may also reimburse persons holding shares in their names or in the names of their nominees for their expenses in sending proxies and proxy materials to their principals.

Unless otherwise directed, the persons named in the accompanying proxy card(s) intend to vote all shares represented by proxies received by them in favor of the election of the nominees to the Board of Directors of the Company named herein and in favor of the ratification of the selected independent registered public accounting firm. All proxies will be voted as specified.

Each share of Class A Common Stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote and each share of Class B Common Stock entitles the holder thereof to ten votes. Votes of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will be counted together without regard to class for proposals that require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority in voting power of all outstanding common stock, voting together. All votes will be certified by the Inspectors of Election, who are employees of the Company.

Abstentions will have the effect of votes against a proposal and broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company's amended Certificate of Incorporation provides that each share of Class B Common Stock held, to the extent of the Company's knowledge, in nominee name by a stockbroker, bank or otherwise will be entitled to only one vote per share unless the Company is satisfied that such shares have been held continuously, since the date of issuance, for the benefit or account of the same named beneficial owner of such shares (as defined in the amended Certificate of Incorporation) or any Permitted Transferee (as defined in the amended Certificate of Incorporation). Beneficial owners of shares of Class B Common Stock held in nominee name wishing to cast ten votes for each share of such stock must properly complete their proxy card, which is specially designed for beneficial owners of Class B Common Stock. The Company has also supplied nominee holders of Class B Common Stock with instructions and specially designed proxy cards to accommodate the voting of the Class B Common Stock. In accordance with the Company's amended Certificate of Incorporation, shares of Class B Common Stock held in nominee name will be entitled to ten votes per share only if the beneficial owner proxy card and the nominee proxy card relating to such shares is properly completed, mailed, and received by ADP, the Company's proxy service facilitator, not less than 3 nor more than 20 business days prior to March 8, 2005. Proxy cards should be mailed to Hovnanian Enterprises, Inc., c/o ADP, 51 Mercedes Way, Edgewood, N.Y., 11717.

Management does not intend to present any business at the meeting other than that set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and it has no information that others will do so. If other matters requiring the vote of shareholders properly come before the meeting and any adjournments thereof, it is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying proxy card(s) to vote the shares represented by the proxies held by them in accordance with their judgment on such matters.
